Concept 2—Effective Habits Bring Positive Results

A habit of success is something you do on a regular basis without conscious thought, which contributes to your happiness and well-being.

A habit forms when you combine knowledge, skill, and desire. Knowledge is understanding what to do and why to do it. Skill is knowing how to do it. Desire is wanting to do it.

4 Foundational Principles

IDENTIFY YOUR HABITS

In the space below, write two of your ineffective habits and two of your effective habits. Then, write the results you get when you practice those habits.

INEFFECTIVE HABITS	RESULTS
Spending all of your time outside of class with your girlfriend or boyfriend
Talking excessively on your cell phone
1.	1.
2.	2.

EFFECTIVE HABITS	RESULTS
Always turning your homework in on time
Never missing a car payment
1.	1.
2.	2.

Would you like to change any of the habits you listed? If so, which one(s) and why?

Effective habits are internalized principles and patterns of thinking.
